

Food Growing & Security: 3 Mini-Workshops for West Enders

Sat Oct 8 and Sun
Oct 9

Mole Hill (Community Room, back lane at 1169 Pendrell)
$5 donation (for 1 or all 3)

Join "edible landscapes" expert Robin Wheeler for one, two, or three workshops on food growing and food security in the highly urbanized setting of the West End. Learn skills. Gain knowledge. Network with others. Each workshop will be 1.5 hours long. Hand out materials will be available. Workshops will include presentation, discussion, and Q&A.

Workshop 1: "Personal Food Security" 10:30 to 12 noon, Saturday, Oct 8

Workshop 2: "Apartment Gardening" 10:30 to 12 noon, Sunday, Oct 9

Workshop 3: "Edible Landscaping." 1:30 to 3 pm, Sunday, Oct 9

PRESENTER: Robin Wheeler teaches traditional skills, sustenance gardening and medicinals at Edible Landscapes (www.ediblelandscapes.ca), a nursery and teaching garden in Roberts Creek, British Columbia. Author of Food Security for the Faint of Heart, and Gardening for the Faint of Heart.

COOPERATION: Gordon Neighbourhood House (Neighbourhood Small Grants Program), Mole Hill Community Housing Society (for room space).

ORGANIZERS: Green Millennium Foundation, Village Vancouver, West End Neighbourhood Food Network

Register online, write foodwestend@gmail.com or tel 604-512-9059

Info: www.greenmillennium.org